Read the following and answer the questions :

Last year, I made a smart choice to start waking up early. I used to go to bed late and wake up late. I always felt tired and rushed in the morning, so I decided to change my routine. I set my alarm for 6:00 am every day. At first, it was hard to get out of bed. However, after a few days, it got easier. Now, I had more time in the morning to relax. I could enjoy breakfast without rushing. I also started going for a walk. The fresh air helped me feel refreshed. I felt more active and happy. My schoolwork improved too. Waking up early gave me a fresh start each day. It was a small but smart choice that truly helped me a lot.

The underlined word "improved" means ".....".

(6 Marks)

1. An Egyptian hero

Dr. Samira Moussa was a great Egyptian scientist. She was born in 1917. She loved science and studied very hard. She became the first Egyptian woman to work in nuclear science. She wanted to use science to help people. Dr. Samira believed that medicine should be cheap and for everyone. She traveled to the USA to learn more, but she died in a car accident. She is a hero and all Egyptians are proud of you.

2. Your role model / Someone you admire

Dr. Mohamed Ghoneim is a famous Egyptian doctor. He is one of the best kidney doctors in the world. He was born in 1939. He worked hard and studied medicine to help people. He started a big center for kidney diseases in Mansoura. Many people go there to get treatment. He is kind, smart, and helps poor patients. He also teaches young doctors. I admire Dr. Ghoneim because he cares about people and wants to make their lives better.

3. Think before you choose / Daily choices

Every day, we have to make choices. Some are easy, like what to eat or what to wear. Others are harder, like choosing friends or doing the right thing. Before we choose, we should stop and think. Is this a good choice? Will it help me or hurt me? Will it make my family proud? Thinking before we choose helps us avoid mistakes. Good choices make life better. Smart students always think before they act.

4. A wise decision

One day, I had two choices. I could go play with my friends or study for my English test. I really wanted to play, but I knew the test was important. I thought carefully and decided to study first. After I finished, I still had time to play. The next day, I got a high mark in my test. I was happy because I made a wise decision. Thinking before choosing helps us do the right thing and feel proud.
